INSTRUCTIONAL DAYS

The Church of Pentecost Pakistan organized Vacation Bible School 2026 across different local assemblies during September 7-12. Guided by Matthew 5:13-16, the programme focused on spiritual formation, Christian identity, character, practical service and joyful participation. The church's wider ministry network comprises 71 assemblies in eight districts; the number of VBS sites is not separately reported.

Children and adults sharing a joyful group activity.

Five lessons. Everyday faith.

The curriculum translated Scripture into practices children can carry into family life and their neighbourhoods.

A young participant contributes during a discussion.

A participant shares a handmade poster about being created with purpose.

Faith that children can see and make.

Hands-on activities made the Bible lessons tangible, memorable and accessible to different ages.

Drawing, colouring, displaying completed artwork and group exercises created room for imagination and conversation. The photos show children engaging with biblical subjects, celebrating their finished work, and learning together. These activities reinforce the programme's purpose: not just hearing the Word, but beginning to live it.

Children carefully work on illustrated activity sheets.

Younger children colour Bible-themed pages in a small group.

Participants proudly display their completed artwork.

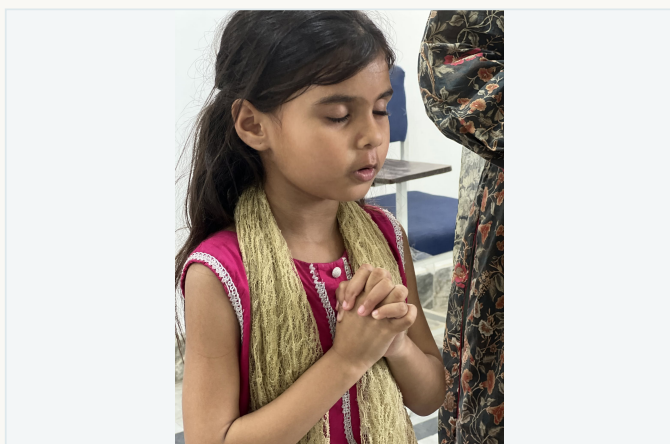

Older children present creative learning linked to Christian virtues.

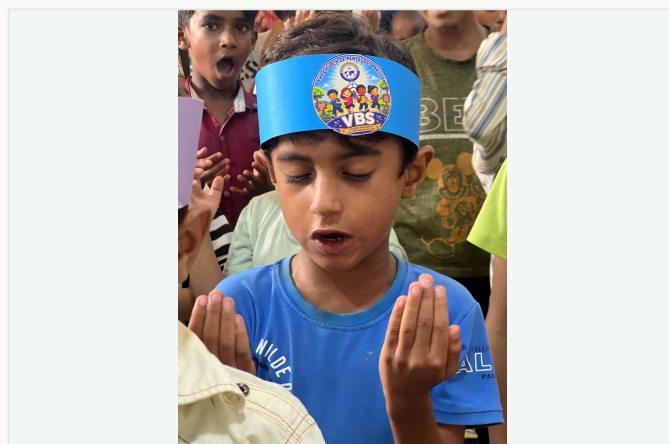

A generation learning to shine.

Prayer and community participation formed an important part of the experience alongside classroom learning.

The VBS invited children to pray, sing, listen, speak, reflect and grow in confidence. In a country where Christian families are a religious minority, the ministry aims to nurture a strong faith expressed through peace, honesty, generosity and respect for neighbours. Long-term transformation will be supported through ongoing Sunday School and family discipleship.

An invitation to partner in 2027.

Together, churches and mission partners can help more children discover the Scriptures and grow in faith.

The 2026 programme registered 629 children and was supported by 27 facilitators. These are meaningful, documented outputs; the church remains committed to the longer work of Christian discipleship beyond the event itself. Through partnership, the next VBS can expand access to thoughtful teaching and safe, joyful

HOW CHURCHES AND MINISTRIES CAN HELP

- Equip facilitators with training and age-appropriate teaching guides.
- Provide children's Bibles, learning materials, crafts and supplies.
- Support safe, welcoming VBS activities in underserved assemblies.
- Help strengthen follow-up Sunday School and family discipleship.

Young participants share a moment of fellowship in their VBS headbands.

Children celebrate their shared experience with handmade VBS signs.
